Action Youth America Instrument Waiver

Your child has decided to join the _____ in the AYA After-School Program at _____. RESPONSIBILITY is one of the virtues students learn at Action Youth America. The students will be using instruments during the duration of the program. This includes proper care of the instruments. If any damages occur to the instruments, it must be reported to _____.

NOTE: If the instruments are damaged while in the student's possession, parents will be held responsible for the cost of the repair of the instruments.

Please DO NOT attempt to repair the instruments yourself for any reason

Practice is very important for the improvement and learning of any instrument. As such, we encourage your child to sign out his/her instruments in the program.

Students in the AYA Music Program have been informed that if they take their instruments home, it is their responsibility to ensure that their instruments are cared for and returned in good conditions.
